SUBJECT: Vest Recommendation
COPY: CPO Foundation

To Whom It May Concern, Red Onion State Prison has currently used the PPSS product at our facility for the past year. We highly recommend their product in any correctional setting.

Working with Benjamin Rakhman has been an enjoyable experience; not only does he provide significant information on the standards and quality of his products; he also guarantees the safety and satisfaction of all staff involved. Mr. Rakhman has consistently provided prompt responsiveness through ordering stab resistant vest.

Red Onion State Prison would like to express our greatest gratitude to Mr. Rakhman's assistance in elevating the safety throughout our institution; evermore his professional demeanor, dedication to our operation, attention to detail, and personal approach has made this mission of protecting staff within the confines of our facility a fulfilling experience.

Due to the low maintenance and structural durability this product has revealed its effectiveness in a high stress atmosphere often involving swift defensive tactics in combination with a comparable cost margin.

Our greatest gratitude to Mr. Rakhman is his persistent ability to provide quality products in a reassuring manner to enhance staff and public safety.

Thank You,
